

Deborah C. Goldstein, BSN, LCSW-C

Education National Catholic School of Social Service Washington, DC
Master of Social Work, 1992
University of Maryland at Baltimore Baltimore, MD
Bachelor of Science in Nursing,

Experience
1992-2017

Jewish Social Service Agency Rockville MD
Clinical Director, Department of Child and Family Services 11/07-1/2017
Provide administrative and clinical supervision of clinical staff that provide psychotherapy services to children adolescents and young adults, as well as provide direct clinical practice

- Provide direct practice of individual psychotherapy with specialization in divorcing families and adolescents with medical illness.
- Coordinate activities for psychotherapy unit including assignment of clients, clinical supervision of therapists, oversight of early childhood grants, management of clinical emergencies, hired professional personnel and maintained staffing, completed performance evaluations, completed UR on quarterly basis, assure highest quality of therapy services, monitor and maintain productivity of staff which was consistently high, monitor and maintain staff documentation.
- Act as liaison between department, agency administration, community partners and other departments.
- Participate in annual budget process and provide information regarding departmental budget on a monthly basis. Consistently achieved budgetary goals.
- Strategic planning to develop new programs, including Parent Toolbox Series, Collaborative Divorce, BFF Clubs, and services offsite to private schools.

Clinical Social Worker, Department of Child & Family Services; Caseworker III 1996-2007
Provide psychotherapy for adults and adolescents.
Develop and implement community outreach programs for at-risk populations.

- Conduct multidisciplinary individual psychotherapy with focus on adolescent populations
- Provide clinical supervision to four social workers and one MSW intern.
- Lead psychotherapy groups.
- Researched and designed psycho-educational curriculum for divorcing women.
- Coverage for Director of Department of Child and Family services, including assignment of cases and departmental emergency coverage.
- Complete documentation and reporting requirements for.
- Achieved highest productivity ratings and assured productivity of supervisees.

Caseworker II, 1992-1996
Provided psychotherapy and case management services.

- Provided assessment, intake and psychotherapy services.
- Worked closely with community agencies and service providers to secure services for clients.
- Established psychotherapy group for hard to engage clients

1996-present Private Practice Rockville, MD
Clinical Social Worker
Provide psychotherapy to adolescents and adults in outpatient setting.

- Manage part-time psychotherapy practice specializing in adolescent practice
- Lead monthly peer supervision group of colleagues and associates.
- Work closely with parents, educators and other collaterals to assure continuity of care.

1991-1993 Center for Psychological and Learning Services at American University Washington, DC
Psychotherapy Intern and Participant in Extended Supervision Group one year Post Graduate
Provided counseling in a college setting and participated in intensive training program in Psychodynamics

- Provided individual psychotherapy for undergraduate and graduate students.
- Selected for Extended Supervision Group. Participated in one additional year of individual supervision and process group work.
- Conducted case conferences with research oriented format.

1989-1990

Threshold Services, Inc. Kensington, MD

Social Work Intern

Worked with Chronically Mentally Ill (CMI) adults and their community to facilitate optimal functioning.

- Provided weekly individual counseling sessions for adults with CMI.
- Planned and co-led weekly staff support groups for residential counselors.
- Co-led communication skills group and socialization group for CMI clients.
- Organized and implemented a community volunteer service program that gave clients the opportunity to participate in employment program.

Nursing Experience

Washington Hospital Center Washington, DC

Head Nurse Outpatient Dialysis Facility, Washington Kidney Center (1978-1983)

Planned, organized and directed nursing activities for 30 member staff. Responsibilities included managerial, administrative, and quality assurance duties.

- Worked as a member of the multidisciplinary transplant selection committee. Participated in the assessment, review and decision making process for selecting transplant candidates.
- Implemented patient care plans for staff.
- Compiled and updated progress reports for granting and overseeing agencies.
- Led weekly staff meetings attended by professional and paraprofessional staff. Collaborated with team to address clinical, administrative and operational issues.
- Responsible for annual performance reviews and made ongoing staffing changes as needed.

Johns Hopkins Hospital Baltimore, MD

Clinical Nurse II (1975-1978)

Primary care nurse in Neonatal Intensive Care Unit. Monitored patient's clinical courses throughout treatment.

- Assumed charge nurse responsibilities. Oversaw operations of unit as needed.
- Instructed parents concerning care of their high-risk infant prior to discharge.
- Conducted orientation classes for new staff nurses.
- Direct nursing care for critically ill infants suffering from prematurity or congenital birth anomalies that required surgical intervention.

Licensure and Certifications

- Licensed Certified Social Worker – Clinical: State of Maryland- Board Approved Supervisor
- Certificate in Group Psychotherapy from the National Group Therapy Institute/Washington School of Psychiatry
- Postgraduate Certificate: Child and Adolescent Assessment and Treatment: A Biopsychosocial Approach
- Certified Mediator
- Certified Collaborative Divorce Coach
- University of Maryland School of Medicine-Certificate in Early Childhood Mental Health.

Professional Memberships

- Greater Washington Society for Clinical Social Work
- National Association of Social Workers